

Privacy Policy

The Fox Valley Concert Band Wisconsin, Inc (FVCB) is committed to protecting the privacy of our website visitors and donors and upholds the confidentiality of personal information. FVCB will not rent, sell, or exchange any personal information you provide us with any third party. This includes name, address, financial information and email address.

Any information we collect from you will be used solely for internal purposes, such as communicating with you and processing donations. Our website's donation page is securely encrypted with industry standard security methods, and any personal or financial information we collect during a donation will be used solely to complete the transaction.

FVCB collects individually identifiable information about you when you choose to share information about yourself, for example, when you make a donation or when you request information. FVCB may use this information to contact you in order to: 1) share voluntary surveys seeking feedback for quality and service improvement purposes, 2) share information, including FVCB news, events, and services, and/or 3) request financial or other donations to the band.

Any information collected is stored on password-protected servers. FVCB takes every precautionary measure available to ensure all data is protected from viruses, security threats or other vulnerabilities.

FVCB's Privacy Policy applies to both our online practices as well as our other operational practices. When visiting links to other sites, we encourage you to review the privacy policies and statements of each site you visit.
